MUTINY ON BOARD THE BARK MARTIN W. BRENT.—The owners of the Bark Wm. H. Shuster, have received a letter from the supercargo, Mr. Curtis, containing the following information:

VALPARAISO, Thursday, Jan. 12.

I have to inform you that your bark, Wm. H. Shuster, arrived with this port on the 15th inst., after a passage of 2 months from Europe—our number of men were reduced by 100, and the crew of sailors, who were present in the service of Martin W. Brent, the master, mate and crew of schooner Andes, of New-London, and the captain and mate of bark W. M. Brett, of Baltimore, the crew of the latter vessel having mutinied and took possession of the bark, and had been sent to the coast of South America, far beyond this. I enclose herewith a statement, signed by the master and mate of the schooner, and certified by the Council of this place.

The loss of the schooner Andes has been previously reported. The bark Martin W. Brett belongs to Baltimore, and arrived at San Francisco March 14. No mention was made of a mutiny on board during the passage out, which fact affords good ground for the belief that the story of the men picked up by the captain of the Wm. H. Shuster was an imposition.

Great Freshet and Immense Destruction of Property—Nine Miles Swept Away.

We are called upon to record the most distressing calamity that has befallen the people of this section of country. We have conversed with several gentlemen who inform us that on Monday last the East Fork of Stone's River was higher than it has been for fifty years—or five feet higher than the great freshet of 1847. The vast destruction may be imagined when every mill and bridge from Woodbury to Jefferson (except Brown's mill) has been swept away—Taylors at Woodbury, Ready's, Sopp's, Chappell's, Adams's, (mill and cotton gin), Jones Sandwhich's, and Pearce's, (saw and grist mill) have all shared the same fate. Pearce's, new bridge, Brown's, Brandon's, and Ready's are gone. Beside this, there has been great destruction to farms all along the river. Mr. Buckner, we learn, lost a string of fence three miles long, and many more have suffered greatly in the same way. We have not yet been able to ascertain the amount of damage done. We have heard the loss estimated at from $100,000 to $150,000.
